

WARRANTY

BD Kitchen Cabinets guarantees all their products sold for a period of 12 months following the delivery date.

BD Kitchen Cabinets guarantees their product under normal use, following these terms and conditions.

1. Warranty Conditions

If a product from BD Cabinets shows a sign of manufacturing defect within the 1 year warranty period from the delivery date, replacement or repairs will be done with discretion of BD Cabinets. With the exception of drawer slides and hinges that have a lifetime warranty offered by the manufacturer.

2. Limitations

Warranty will not apply if:

- A) This warranty does not cover problems caused by improper installation or cabinet usage, products used to clean cabinets that are not compatible with our material and negligence towards our product.
- B) A product from BD Cabinet that has been modified changed and/or repaired by any other person than BD Cabinets.
- C) Any imperfections to the surface caused by normal use.
- D) BD Kitchen Cabinets will not be held liable for, but not limited to, any loss of time, labour or any inconvenience arising from any work that was not completed or for any defective products.
- E) A Thermoplastic and PVC product that is installed close to a heating system or an appliance that is not well isolated. We do not recommend these products to be close to an oven, microwave and self-clean oven.
- F) Any defects to the stain, paint or lacquer applied to cabinet parts that come in contact with water or detergents.
- G) Defects to any component caused by overheating or excess amounts of moisture that accumulates in your home that cannot be controlled.
- H) Due to the difference in natural color and grain, every piece of wood can react differently once finishing products applied. It is possible that you will be able to see a minor difference in color from one component to another and even within the same component.
- I) The humidity that varies in your home can affect the wood components of cabinets.
- J) BD Kitchen Cabinets will not be held responsible for the grain of wood or color tones of the natural wood used even if there are slight differences in color or texture of materials delivered over the samples that were shown or furnished to the buyer. It is agreed that BD Kitchen Cabinets is not liable and the buyer cannot use these differences to get a price reduction or cancellation of his contract.

3. Repairs & Replacements

If a product from BD Cabinets shows signs of defect in normal use conditions, during the warranty period, a warranty service can be provided with original proof of purchase from BD Cabinets where it was purchased at the sole discretion of the manufacturer.

4. Warranty Exclusions

This warranty constitutes the entire warranty given by Bois D'Or for its products. No dealer, distributor or employee of BD Cabinets has the authority to change the obligations or limitations of this warranty.
